CHICAGO WOMAN SEEKS MONEY

Thinks Man Who Died Here In Hospital Carried $600 Insurance.

An investigation is being made by W. C. Porterfield, representing Mrs. Elizabeth Hollis, of 1246 Glendale avenue, Chicago, to find out whether the Philip Steele, who died at the county hospital on April 14 and buried in the county cemetery, was her husband. Mrs. Hollis bases her claim to a $300 insurance policy on the grounds that Steele was her husband and that he left a note addressed to Elizabeth Hollis before his death in the county hospital.

Mrs. Hollis states that Steele's real name was Hollis and that he deserted from the U. S. army three years ago and two years after they were divorced. She recently sent a picture to El Paso of Hollis. He was a printer and had been employed by the Commercial Printing company. If Steele can be identified as Hollis, Mrs. Hollis will secure the $300 insurance.

Self-Control First Element In Character

Many Persons Think They Have It, But Nearly All Are Found Lacking in Some Way When They Are Put To Strict Test—Will Must Be Developed.

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Such is said of self control by preachers and teachers the world over, but to how many human beings can we point as illustrating the beauty of that virtue? In truth, what is self control?

Were you child to ask you what you meant by the word, could you explain?

Are you exercising this admirable quality in your daily life and if so, in what direction? Perhaps you have an insatiable taste for strong drink and you control it and "touch not, taste not, handle not the unclean thing."

That is well and good. Yet are you bringing on diseases and early death by indulging a gross appetite for hearty food?

Possibly you are indolent by inclination and you compel yourself to work. That, too, is well and good.

The human drone who does no labor, mental or physical, for the good of the human hive should be driven from among his kind.

Yet he who would be worthy of the appellation of a "self-controlled man" must do more than to labor in sobriety.

Self Control In Labor.

If you are possessed with an insatiable love of wealth your very labor will be a distraction and call for the use of self control. Next to the sin of idleness comes the sin of intemperance in work. To work day and night to the injury of your health and to the neglect of your family means the destruction of the temple of your soul and the foundation of happiness on earth—the home.

If you are used for great wealth it will be an easy matter for you to make a necessity of a desire and to commit domestic and hygienic suicide by a lack of self-control.

An hour or two a day, an extra evening or two in the week might be given to recreation and home life were you to realize how small an object in the general result of happiness wealth proves when placed beside the things you are sacrificing to obtain it.

Perhaps you are a literary man, or a clergyman, or an artist engaged in creative work. Upon the success of your work depends the comfort of your family and your reputation as a man of talent. Therefore you feel justified in being somewhat "difficult" in your home and social relations.

You are nervous and irritable and you have no excuse to make. Talent is expected to exert a multitude of such "talent" excuses, nothing which weakens character, and the first element in character development is self-control.

Control your belittling nervousness and your childish irritability if you want to rank among the worth-while.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

"THE IVORY SNUFF BOX"

"The Ivory Snuff Box," Arnold Kummer's thrilling and brilliant story, will be the attraction at the Alhambra, today and tomorrow, with Holbrook Blinn in the stellar role. Patrons of the Alhambra will remember Mr. Blinn for his very excellent work in "The Box," which was exhibited at the Alhambra in July. The Ivory Snuff Box is a story of action, rapid, nervous, exciting and logical, and is a play that we cannot recommend too highly to the public. The story has been adapted to the screen with a remarkable degree of adaptability. It is one of those stories, deplorably few in number, that places right into the midst of a baffling and thrilling situation immediately after the introduction of the characters and their way of introducing episode after episode of the most intensely thrilling variety. The conclusion is not anticipated until the story is full to brimming over with suspense.—Advertisement.

EXTRA GOOD BILL, TODAY—BIJOU.

The last regular program in town will be the Bijou. The last of the popular "Grand Hotel" pictures shown every Saturday at the Bijou is "The Man in Irons," a picture which is full of the photographic settings and the acting of the entire cast are up to the Kalem company's high standard. "The Man in Irons," who plays the lead, gives a capital performance in this feature. "The Tiger Slayer," a jungle-zoo drama, will also be shown. Tomorrow, Sunday, an all star comedy bill, including a George Ade comedy, will be given. The Ade brand of humor is as refreshing as ever in this reel. Special music will be rendered nightly at the Bijou, by an expert pianist, Mr. Hayes, commencing tonight, who has played in the largest picture houses in the country.—Adv.

FRANCIS BUSMAN TODAY.

"The Silent Voice," featuring Francis X. Bushman and Margaret Shaw, will be the special attraction at the Unique today and tomorrow. This play, in six wonderful acts, is from the pen of Jules Eckert Goodman, and is one of the skinner's great successes, being played at the Liberty theater, New York, last season. In this production Mr. Bushman appears in a role somewhat different from what his many admirers have been accustomed to. The shows start at 12 m., 1:30 p. m., 3 p. m., 4:30 p. m., 6 p. m., 7:30 p. m., 9 p. m., and the admission price will be 50c for adults and 15c for children.—Advertisement.

CRAWFORD THEATRE.

Tonight the Albert Taylor company will present Jack London's powerful play, "The Game," at the Crawford. As this great play is one of the most successful in Mr. Taylor's entire repertoire, a large crowd will doubtless be on hand.—Advertisement.
